Come and see filmmaker Perri Pierre's Live Action Short film that features a unique and heartbreaking story by Australian writers Steven Spiel and Bethany Moriarty, performances by Perri Pierre and one of the stars from the Upcoming Netflix sitcom: Orange is the new black Vicky Jeudy, amazing Costume and Production design by Isabelle Parzygnat, original music by composer Leo Kirkpatrick and astounding makeup by Christina Milfort. The film's total running time is 18 minutes and it was shot in High Definition.

"Addiction", is the story of a young man who battles between his addiction to drugs and alcohol and his quest to find true love.

The screenings at the Laemmle Noho 7 mark the film's theatrical debut and it will continue to run on the film festival circuit for the coming year as the film's producer makes his push towards the 2014 Academy Awards.

The film's producer is: Perri Pierre, born in Brooklyn, NY, grew up in Haiti, he's an award-winning filmmaker and actor. After studying Drama and Theatre at Queens College (City University of New York), he decided to focus solely on his passion for film. In 2011, he wrote, directed and lead starred in his first production J-12, which is scheduled to air on national television soon. He later produced and lead starred in his second production, 'Three of One Kind' with which he won his first award, a People's choice Award by the International Movie Trailer Festival. Addiction is his third production. Other than his own, Perri has appeared in Law & Order: SVU, Cupid and more.
